The International Centre Expands Complimentary Wireless Solutions

Mississauga, ON - January 15, 2013 - The International Centre's Conference Centre Grand Lobby has become its newest complimentary wireless hotspot location. In addition to the complimentary Wi-Fi available at Craft Eatery, the Grand Lobby will provide clients and visitors with wireless services for their ever growing online needs.

"At The International Centre, the needs of our clients and visitors are our top priority," said Trevor Lui, Director of Operations and Sustainability. "We understand the importance of staying connected while doing business and are focused on providing the best service possible."

The Grand Lobby Wi-Fi hotspot, much like Craft Eatery, is a self-service network, offering automatic connections and enabling users to perform routine tasks without interruption. At nearly 12,000 square feet, the Conference Centre Grand Lobby area will provide meeting clientele with a perfect backdrop for everyday business connectivity. Clients, exhibitors and show managers that require more robust service can coordinate with the facility's Telecommunications team to arrange expert on-site support and state-of-the-art services that are available facility-wide.

The expanded wireless solutions are part of The International Centre's ongoing $4.5-million multi-phase renewal plan and renovations slated for completion fall 2013. Combining functionality, versatility and design The International Centre's renewal plan will enhance client and visitor experience for the over 450 events held annually.
